Thank You, Rapid City — From Two Corners of Downtown

RAPID CITY, SD – September 18, 2025 — After more than 12 years of serving the Rapid City community, Que Pasa Mexican Cantina and Wobbly Bobby Pub & Tap Room have officially transitioned ownership. While we knew changes were on the horizon for Que Pasa, the sale of both properties to another restaurant group came as a surprise to many—including us.

This change marks the end of an incredible chapter—one built on tacos and tequila, pints and pub nights, friendships and first dates, music, mayhem, and a whole lot of laughter. From the bottom of our hearts, we want to thank the community for helping us create something truly special. The love and support over the past decade has meant everything to our team.

To our guests, our regulars, our die-hards—we couldn't have done it without you. And to our employees, who are the soul of what we built: we're happy to share that all staff still have homes within the company. No one has been let go. Many of them will be popping up at the Firehouse soon — so if you're missing a favorite face, you'll know where to look.

While the future of the Que Pasa and Wobbly Bobby spaces is now in the hands of the new ownership, we're eager to see what comes next and excited for the potential of something fresh in downtown Rapid.

We also want to extend our sincere thanks to everyone who joined us over the past few days as we said our goodbyes. The final rounds of tacos, beers, hugs, and stories reminded us just how much these places meant to so many.

This may be the end of the road for Que Pasa and Wobbly Bobby as we knew them—but it's far from the end of the story.

With gratitude,

The Que Pasa & Wobbly Bobby Family
